

Oncology Social Work Australia
2011 Conference
'Social Work Impacting Cancer Care:
Across the Lifespan, Across Cultures, Across the Land'
Friday 18th and Saturday 19th November 2011

Meet us in Perth, Western Australia: the world's most isolated city

Are you planning to come to the conference? Take an extra few days to explore and enjoy what our beautiful state has to offer.

In Perth and immediate surrounds:

- Visit beautiful King's Park botanical gardens and take in the views over the Swan River.
- Visit Fremantle, our historic Port town. Don't forget to taste Freo's boutique beers!
- Take a wine tour of the Swan Valley.
- Visit Perth Cultural Centre in the heart of Northbridge including Galleries, Bars, Restaurants and Shops.
- Visit our pristine beaches and swim in the Indian Ocean. Catch one of the amazing Western Australian sunsets.
- Head for car and carefree Rottnest Island; cycle, swim, snorkel or kayak or just do nothing but relax!
- Head up the coast to Hillary's Marina, with the WA Aquarium as well as great bars, restaurants and swimming.

Beyond Perth:

- Visit Margaret River and Dunsborough where you can find world famous wineries, stunning nature and glorious coastline with some of WA's best surfing and swimming beaches.
- Visit Albany to see one of the state's most attractive coastline settings endowed with a fascinating history.
- Head to Pemberton and take a leisurely drive through the Karri Forest.
- Take a day trip to York. Enjoy hot air ballooning, sky diving or just the heritage and character of this historic town.
- Take some extra time and head to Geraldton, the capital of WA's mid-west and gateway to the Abrolhos Islands.

Would you like travel companions? Why not get a group together with fellow OSWA conference attendees or members Link up with fellow travellers on <http://oswaconferenceholiday.wa.blogspot.com>

We encourage you to book flights as early as possible to enable you to obtain cheaper airfares. We will shortly be posting a list of accommodation in the Perth Metropolitan area on our website to assist you in making your stay as comfortable and affordable as possible.

Further information on tourism in Western Australia can be found at the following websites:

Tourism Western Australia
www.westernaustralia.com

